

The Colorado Association of Psychotherapists Sunset Review Spring Membership Drive

As many of you already know, 2011 is the year that the Colorado Legislature will be reviewing the Colorado Mental Health Statute, which provides unlicensed psychotherapists the right to practice. What you may not know is that 2010 is very important for CAP as we are actively engaged with DORA and the Mental Health Coalition, and through our lobbyist, with the legislature.

CAP has the respect of DORA, the Coalition, and the legislature. We can be an even stronger voice as we grow our membership. And as our membership grows, we can have the financial strength to effectively represent our members. Did you know we are also representing a large number of people who are practicing as unlicensed psychotherapists in the state who have not joined CAP? Yes, it's true. We want to reach out to everyone and emphasize that their support is needed.

We are beginning a one month membership drive April 1st. To encourage people to join CAP, and for existing members to help us recruit new members, we have some gifts as incentives. These gifts have all been graciously donated to CAP and we have posted information about those who have helped us in this way.

The membership drive incentives have been divided between the Denver Metro area, including Boulder, and the outlying areas of the state. That way people who do not live in the Denver area also have an incentive to recruit new members.

In addition to the incentives, we are also offering 10 copies of "The Legal Guide to Practicing Psychotherapy in Colorado" by Dennis Lane, which have graciously been donated to us by Bradford Publishing. These books will be given to the first 10 people who join CAP beginning April 1st (who do so on their own and have not been recruited).
