A Judicial Option for Protecting the Right to Practice as Psychotherapists

10:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

Mary Lou Serafine, Attorney & Counselor at Law

Join a dynamic discussion with Mary Louise Serafine, an attorney and former research psychologist, about judicial options for maintaining the practice of psychotherapy. She will review Serafine v. Branaman, where the federal court held that the Texas psychologist licensing law was unconstitutional on its face as a violation of freedom of speech. She will also review a recent Supreme Court decision that prohibits anti-trust and monopoly-like conduct by licensing boards. Ms. Serafine will frame her comments around questions by our members. Please send questions to CAP President Carol O'Dowd.

SUNSET REVIEW: Engaging the Legislative Process to Protect Your Right to Practice Psychotherapy 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. Lunch provided

Dr. Reo Leslie, LPC, LMFT, CACIII, RPT-S, MAC, Director, Colorado School for Family Therapy, is Chair of CAP's Legislative Committee. Learn how Sunset Review will impact the right to practice psychotherapy. Explore strategies for influencing Sunset Review to protect the Registered Psychotherapist designation and our right to practice as mental health professionals. Leave with talking points to discuss with your State Senator and State Representative. Please forward questions to CAP President Carol O'Dowd for Dr. Leslie's presentation.

DIVERSE PSYCHOTHERAPIES: CBT, LENS, Hypnotherapy, NLP. How they are effective. 1:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Dallas Shepard, RP, Harmonized Brain Centers; Charity Mills, Soaring Hope Recovery Center; and Ed Bostick, MPA, CCHt, RP, will review different modalities being successfully used to treat TBI, PTSD, addiction and other mental health issues. Ed Bostick will share the latest developments in hypnotherapy and NLP.

Join this interactive discussion of practical techniques for use in your practice.
